Participation Agreement for Vermont Schools

The teacher (s) at the following school wish to participate in the Vermont MIDI Project for the school year, 2007-2008. This agreement must be signed by a building administrator to indicate support for the teacher(s) and students to participate. The Vermont MIDI Project is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization dedicated to infusing composition with the integration of technology into the curriculum.

Participation fee schedule: (Note- a new fee structure will likely require an increase in 08-09 to more adequately reflect costs associated with project activities.)

- Continuing members - 16 composition discussions for mentoring online in the password protected website for $300/year
- New members - 10 compositions for $150/year
- Continuing schools with part-time music teachers - 8 compositions for $150/year
- Additional composition discussions may be purchased at any time during the year - 10 for $100/year beyond the initial membership fee

Note: "composition discussion" permits as much discussion and revision to any one piece for as long as a student wishes to continue the dialogue.

Responsibilities for participating teachers and students:

- Agree and adhere to online mentoring guidelines (available on website)
- Post one critique per month on a composition from another school
- Attend 2 full day professional development workshops
- Complete information requested by our project evaluators or coordinator
- Check e-mail and password protected web site regularly
